

Creative Writing

Course Type: Part Time Love2Learn

Location: City Centre Campus

The aim of the course is for students to acquire creative writing skills. You will be offered a chance to study different techniques for developing a variety of ideas and will be encouraged to critique your own work along with the work of others. The course is for people of all ages with an interest in creative writing and who are competent in their use of language, committed to attending regularly and willing to share their work.

What topics are covered?

Plots & creating structure; Different forms and genre; Editing, amending and formatting work for various media; Getting published/finding your audience.

Who is the course aimed at?

Suitable for beginners and there will be sufficient scope for more experienced writers to develop and improve their work.

How will I learn?

Confidence will be developed through group work, tutor discussions and one to one tuition. Weekly exercises will be set as homework to underpin learning and form the basis for regular critiques. Regular constructive feedback will be given in verbal and written form. Where appropriate your tutor will offer advice and direction for relevant reading and bibliographic materials.
