

Sculpture - Hand and Foot

Course Type: Part Time Love2Learn

Location: City Centre Campus

This hand and foot sculpture course will give you an in-depth knowledge of these areas, and become confident in sculpting them. You will work directly from life and will be able to produce a sculpture each of the foot and the hand. You will gain understanding of techniques, and underlying structure and anatomy that will enable you to make beautiful hands and feet in your own future work.

What topics are covered?

Armature making, and construction and modelling in clay to produce a finished piece. Students will work from life, learning modelling techniques along with the basics of the underlying structure and anatomy of the hands and feet.

Who is the course aimed at?

Suitable for all levels of sculptural skill from beginners onwards.

Who will be my tutor?

Matt Pilston

How will I learn?

You will model a hand and foot in clay from life, building from a basic wire sculpture. Tuition and practical demonstration will be given for you to gain an understanding of the underlying structure and anatomy.
