

Mixed Media

Course Type: Part Time Love2Learn

Location: City Centre Campus

This course is designed for you to explore creative processes using mixed media. Experiment with art and textiles, exploring different techniques and processes through colour, tones and layering with cloth, paper and paint to create a fashion design product or a piece of textile art. Ideal for those wanting to develop their creative responses and interests to creating a portfolio of work and a product

What topics are covered?

Mark making and drawing techniques

Mood boards

Painting and printing techniques

Freehand embroidery

Key designers and artists

Who is the course aimed at?

Anyone wishing to explore their own creativity and develop their own style. Suitable for all levels of ability

Who will be my tutor?

Emma Trussler, an alumni of Bath Spa University, where she completed her Masters in MA Design Fashion and Textiles. Emma takes inspiration from colours, surfaces and patterns – her process begins with photos and sketches before she creates a watercolour painting and finally turns them into prints or embroidery pieces. The focus in her research for her MA was based on her time in China over a 3-year period. Click on Instagram link below to see more.
