

Professional Illustration

Course Type: Part Time Love2Learn

Location: City Centre Campus

This creative 10-week course will provide an introduction to professional illustration. It will be based around a choice of several illustration briefs, which you will have the opportunity to complete within the ten-week course. It will also include discussions on professional practice, copyright and personal promotion. You will be encouraged to develop your working methods and personal style, whilst exploring the use of different tools and materials. Along with traditional media, digital work will be encouraged using our state-of-the-art Mac facilities. If you are unfamiliar with digital techniques, this will be an opportunity to explore digital illustration using the leading industry-standard software.

What topics are covered?

While working on your chosen brief, there will be opportunities to develop a personal style and to explore the different aspects and characteristics of various media including the use of digital tools. During the Illustration course, there will also be several presentations followed by group discussions on various aspects of professional practice, including copyright and self-promotion.

How will I learn?

The course is designed to engage students directly in a specific illustration project of their choice. During the classes, professional guidance and advice will be available on an individual basis from the tutor. In addition, there will be several presentations accompanied by group discussions on various aspects of professional illustration.

Are there any additional costs?

Your tutor will advise you on the purchase of any additional materials or equipment.

Where will I need to go on my first day?
