

The Drawing Course

Course Type: Part Time Love2Learn

Location: City Centre Campus

The Drawing Course will challenge your preconceptions about drawing as you experiment with mark-making and process; you will also be taught the formal elements of drawing through a variety of subject matter including life drawing. We would recommend this drawing course for anyone wishing to further develop themselves as an artist. The drawing course is also suitable for students developing portfolios for A-level and entry onto our full time Art and Design courses. Drawing is a fundamental tool for any aspiring artist or designer. In order to communicate ideas, artists need to develop a visual language. Drawing development is the key to unlocking creative responses in all aspects of Art and Design.

What topics are covered?

Materials and approaches to mark making; Surfaces, grounds/papers; Approaches to drawing – measuring, proportion, scale; Formal drawing language – tone, line, form, structure, surface; Drawing as a tool to develop and extend ideas; Approaches to experimental drawing, materials and process.
