Data Protection Act 1998 and Privacy Notice

The College abides by the Data Protection Act 1998. The personal information you have provided will be processed by the College for the purposes of providing educational and related services. The information may be disclosed to specific third parties, such as the Learning Partnership West and examination boards if relevant.

More information can be found at www.bathcollege.ac.uk/website/terms-and-disclaimers. Please note that parents have no automatic right to information about their sons/daughters but it may, in certain circumstances, be beneficial for the College to liaise with parents, provided the student is given the opportunity to object to a disclosure being made.

If you disclose a learning disability, the information will be used for the purpose of determining what adjustments, if any, are reasonable to ensure you are not put at substantial disadvantage. The information will be disclosed only to those staff that need to know in order to implement such reasonable adjustments.

How we use your personal information

The personal information you provide is passed to the Chief Executive of Skills Funding (“the Agency”) and, when needed, the Department for Education, including the Education Funding Agency to meet legal responsibilities under the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009, and for the Agency’s Learning Records Service (LRS) to create and maintain a Unique Learner Number (ULN). The information you provide may be shared with other organisations for education, training and employment-related purposes.
