

Are you eligible for financial support?

The College holds several funds which cater for different groups. Use the tables on these pages to find out if you are eligible. These tables are only a guide and awards are NOT guaranteed. Once we have assessed your application we will write to confirm your award.

19+ Learner Support Fund/ Loans Bursary Fund

The Following students can access this fund if they meet the eligibility criteria in the table below:

Students aged 19+ in further education but NOT students aged 19 on 31st August 2019 and on the 2nd year of their Level 3 course, these students should apply to the 16-18 bursary fund.

BURSARY FUND	ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA	Course fees	Help with Travel costs	Kit/Uniform/Material	Help with Childcare	Additional Learning Support	Contribution to University Application and Open Day Visits
19+ Loans Bursary	Full or part time student in receipt of an Advanced Learner Loan and with a household income of less than £30,000	No	Yes	Yes	Maximum of £135 Per Week	Yes	No
19+ Discretionary Learner Support Fund	Full or part time student on an eligible course with an income as follows: £30,000 or under for applicants living with a partner and/or children. We will deduct £1,000 from annual household income for each child in education in the household excluding the student OR Single applicant, living with parents and working part time, with a student income of under £30,000 OR Single applicant living independently and working, with a student income of less than £30,000 OR Under 25 with no income of their own and living with parent/Guardians whose income is less than £30,000	50% or £1000 whichever is the lesser amount	Yes	Yes	Maximum of £135 Per Week	No	Yes

We will only pay for childcare to cover students timetabled hours during college term time up to a maximum of £135.00 per child per week. Please be advised that the college terms may differ from school terms and you will be liable for any childcare booked during college holidays. Not all courses are eligible for funding, please check with student advice centre to confirm.